The 47th installment of Menominee Range Memories, a series of articles by William J. Cummings, Menominee Range

Historical Foundation historian, now available on the Dickinson County Library's website, is titled "Downtown Iron Mountain – 321-331 South Stephenson Avenue."

History of 321: Built in 1887 at 321 South Stephenson Avenue by Clinton W. Montgomery, a brick manufacturer, the Montgomery Block was one of Iron Mountain's early business blocks. In April

1889, Montgomery purchased the Adams House, a hotel belonging to the Jacques Brothers, for $4,400. This frame property adjoined his brick building, and the editor of The Menominee Range hoped Montgomery would remove the wooden structure and extend his “handsome brick block.”

John T. Spencer, a “dealer in fruits and vegetables, provisions, confectionery and notions,” operated two stores in 1892-1894, one in the Montgomery Block and the other at 118 West B Street, where he also lived.

An article in the May 7, 1891 edition of Iron Mountain’s The Menominee Range made mention of many business moves, including the Montgomery building, as follows:

THE draymen about town had plenty of work on Friday last and all day long great loads of furniture, store fixtures, etc., were passing to and fro on the streets. May 1 is considered all over the country to be a general moving day and it seems to be an established fact that more people move on that day than any other day in the whole year. In this city there were more removals than usual and many businessmen are comfortably ensconced in their new quarters while others are making preparations to become settled. The Montgomery building which was formerly occupied by the saloon of J.H. Williams, will be taken up in a few days by the Bee Hive store. The building is being remodeled this week and when completed will make one of the finest stores in town, the old front having been torn out and substituted by one of plate glass. Williams’ saloon now occupies the building recently erected by Sol. Noble on Ludington street. Edward St. Arnauld has vacated the building he occupied on Stephenson avenue and has removed his saloon to the Gingras & Trepanier building on Hughitt street. J.R. Johnston will occupy the vacated room with his tailor shop and gents’ furnishing store. The room is being newly refitted and papered and will make a good stand for Mr. Johnston’s business. The City Shoe Store has been removed from Brown street to a stand on Stephenson avenue where Joseph Parry and A. Lieberthal & Co. were stationed. This will now be an exclusive boot and shoe store and will be managed by Mr. Parry and Fred Hunting. The building vacated by them on Brown street will be occupied by A. Uddenberg as a drug store. A. Lieberthal & Co. will remove their store to the building now occupied by the Bee Hive, but later in the year they will remove to the store now taken up by Sam Rusky, who in turn will go to the Bee Hive’s present location.*

An item in the May 27, 1897 edition of the Iron Mountain Press noted:

In the June 3, 1897 edition of the Iron Mountain Press, under the headline “Hassel Embarrassed”, the following article appeared:

The dry goods establishment of Ellis Hassel, in the Montgomery block, was closed on a chattel mortgage held by Lauerman Bros., of Marinette, last Monday. The mortgage is for $1,874. Mr. Hassel came to the city about a year ago and engaged in business in a small way in the Catlin building on Brown street, moving about four months ago to Stephenson avenue. He was enterprising and was thought to be doing a successful business. His failure is a surprise to his most intimate friends. Mr. Hassel informs his intimates that he intends going to Europe as soon as his affairs are settled.

The Victoria Lodge #262 of the Order of the Sons of St. George, a Cornish fraternal group, marched past the 300 block of South Stephenson Avenue in formation behind a band in about 1905. The man on horseback leading the procession may have been Jack Eslick. Seibert's Drug Store (George Frederick Seibert) stood at the corner (333) before 1892. Sam Cudlip, a long-time employee at Seibert's, was running Cudlip's Drug Store in the same building by 1925. The building was razed in 1969. At 327-331 Abe Sackim ran The Paris Store, a clothing store, prior to 1902. The business was the Abe Sackim Company by 1920 and was still operating in the 1950s. Note the "Sackim Store" name on the awning. In 1892 A.M. Oppenheim operated The Fair at 325-327, selling dry goods and clothing. A photo dating prior to 1892 shows the Rundle Brothers operating a hardware and mining supply store here. In 1913 Joseph De Concini ran The Bank Buffet at 323. B. Kramer & Company operated a billiard parlor and sold cigars and liquor at this site in 1907. At 317-319

John I. Khoury ran The Boston Store, selling clothing, in 1913. In 1907 Khoury's store only occupied 319 and Archie Lanquette ran a restaurant at 321. By 1907 Rahm & Will Jewelers (Gust Rahm and Louis J. Will) were operating at 313 (today 315). By 1925 the Fugere Brothers sold men's furnishings and shoes at 311-315. In 1913 Gust P. Johnson ran a dry goods store at 311 and was in partnership with John Hanson here in 1907. Michael Khoury sold fruits and confectionery at 305 by 1913 and was still there in 1925. G.F. Gensch ran his hardware store at 301-303 in 1913. William G. Sundstrom had a hardware store here by 1902 and was still operating in 1907. Rian's Hardware was here by 1925. [Menominee Range Historical Museum]

Another article in the June 3, 1897 edition of the Iron Mountain Press, under the headline "A New Store", stated:

*Dan H. Lieberthal has decided to return to Iron Mountain and engage in business. He has leased the Montgomery brick block for a term of years, and the building is now in the hands of carpenters for an extensive refitting. Mr. Lieberthal expects to be in shape to receive customers on Saturday. Since leaving Iron Mountain he has been engaged in business in Dawson, Minn., and Ironwood.

A third article involving the Montgomery building appeared in the same edition of the Iron Mountain Press, under the headline "Will Rebuild Their Store", as follows:

Hancock & Sundstrom, the hardware merchants, are engaged this week in moving their stock of goods to the Montgomery block. It is the intention of the company to rebuild the store they have occupied for so many years. A stone foundation and basement will be put under the store and other improvements made that will add much to the appearance of the corner.

In the October 28, 1897 edition of the Iron Mountain Press, the following article appeared under the headline "Sundstrom Moves":

A.J. Sundstrom, the hardware merchant, who has occupied the Cameron building, N. Stephenson avenue, ever since he engaged in business here, is moving this week to the Montgomery block, opposite the Chicago & Northwestern depot. This is an excellent stand, convenient to all parts of the city, and the removal will undoubtedly result in an increase in business. Mr. Sundstrom informs The Press that he intends adding largely to his stock of goods and will receive in a few days a splendid line of china, crockery and glassware, which will be displayed on the second floor. He will make a specialty of this line and invites the public to inspect his stock.

The two Montgomery blocks, the brick block and the frame block, both burned on Tuesday morning, January 11, 1898. At the time of the fire, the Montgomery blocks were occupied by D.H. Lieberthal, clothier; A.J. Sundstrom, hardware; E. Mattson, confectionery; and C. Corneilson, baker. The Iron Mountain Press termed the fire "the most destructive fire in the history of Iron Mountain, resulting in the almost total destruction of the Montgomery brick and frame blocks and the damaging of the Allen building." The loss totaled over $33,000. The Allen Building had A.E. Smith, saloonkeeper, as a tenant.

Shortly after one o'clock Policeman Bray discovered fire in the basement of the brick building occupied by Mr. Montgomery as an undertaking establishment. An alarm was at once turned in and the company responded with their usual promptness. Chief Harvey, with the assistance of his men and many volunteers, soon had nine streams of water pouring torrents of water upon and into the buildings but owing to the difficulty of locating the flames it was not extinguished until six o'clock. In the meantime nearly 500,000 gallons of water had been consumed. Chief Harvey pronounced the fire to have been one of the most vicious he ever had to fight, and "had it not been for the efficiency of our fire department and water works system the business portion of our city would have been wiped out of existence."

Although a considerable amount of Sundstrom's, Lieberthal's and Mattson's stock was saved, it was in such a badly damaged condition that they would be lucky to realize hardly 25 cents on the dollar, thus suffering almost a total loss.

How the fire originated remained a mystery, but talk of incendiarism [sic] was "mere guess work."

As a result of this fire, the ordinance regulating fire limits was amended. Only solid brick or stone buildings were to be erected in the business district, and a fire warden was appointed. The city council was petitioned to lay water mains along the surface of Stephenson Avenue across the Chapin Pit to give increased efficiency.

A transcription of the article regarding this fire appears below and was published in the January 13, 1898 edition of the Iron Mountain Press under the headline "A Destructive Fire".

A DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

The Montgomery Blocks Badly Damaged – A Loss of Nearly $30,000.

The most destructive fire in the history of Iron Mountain occurred last Tuesday morning, resulting in the almost total destruction of the Montgomery brick and frame blocks and the damaging of the Allen building. The loss will reach a total of over $33,000.

Shortly after one o'clock Policeman Bray discovered fire in the basement of the brick building occupied by Mr. Montgomery as an undertaking establishment. An alarm was at once turned in and the company responded with their usual promptness. Chief Harvey, with the assistance of his men and many volunteers, soon had nine streams of water pouring torrents of water upon and into the buildings, but owing to the difficulty of locating the flames it was not extinguished until six o'clock. In the meantime nearly 500,000 gallons of water had been consumed. Chief Harvey pronounces the fire to have been one of the most vicious he ever had to fight, and it may be recorded that had it not been for the efficiency of our fire department and water works system the business portion of our city would have been wiped out of existence.

The Montgomery buildings were occupied by D.H. Lieberthul [sic – Lieberthal], clothier, A.J. Sundstrom, hardware, E. Mattson, confectioner, and C. Corneilson, baker. The Allen building had for a tenant A.E. Smith, saloon keeper [sic – saloonkeeper]. The losses are as follows:

It will be noticed that the loss of Messrs. Sundstrom, Lieberthal and Mattson is almost a total one. Considerable of their stock were saved, but in such a badly damaged condition that they will hardly realized [sic – realize] 25 cents on the dollar for them. Mr. Lieberthal has his stock stored in the Cameron building and Messrs. Sundstrom and Mattson are in the Wood block. The gentlemen will have the solid sympathy of the community in their misfortune.

How the fire originated is a mystery, but talk of incendiarism [sic] is mere guess work.

The following item also appeared in the January 13, 1898 edition of the Iron Mountain Press regarding C.W. Montgomery's plans to rebuild:

C.W. Montgomery is arranging to erect a fine business block on the lot occupied by the partially destroyed frame building. A merchant has agreed to lease the same for a term of five years.

In the June 1, 1898 edition of Iron Mountain's The Daily Tribune in the "CITY NEWS ITEMS" column, the following appeared:

A. Kramer & Co. opened a new liquor store in the Montgomery block this noon. It is a gorgeously furnished place with a bar in a circle in the center of the large room. The firm is composed of Abe, Ben and Meyer Kramer.

In the "CITY NEWS ITEMS" column of the June 9, 1898 edition of The Daily Tribune the following announcement appeared:

The Montgomery building is being made safe by tearing it down.

An article in the August 25, 1898 edition of the Iron Mountain Press under the headline "TWO MORE ARE DEAD: Johnson and Symons of Co. E" the following information appeared:

Last Monday morning the editor of The Press received a telegram from the Detroit Evening News containing the sad information that August L. Johnson, a member of Company E, had died in the military hospital at Santiago, Cuba, of typhoid fever. His two brothers, Oscar and Charles, employed at the London store, were at once informed of their bereavement, and they communicated the news to the afflicted parents who reside on Kent street in the Chapin location. In addition to the above named relatives the deceased also leaves two sisters who reside at home. August L. Johnson was a splendid type of manhood and his death in foreign lands while serving his adopted country is mourned by many friends.

He was about twenty-five years of age, and had been a member of Company E almost since its organization. Last summer, for several months, he conducted a bicycle repair shop in the Montgomery building.

This view, probably taken shortly after the turn of the century, shows the south end of the east side of the 300 block of South Stephenson Avenue, including 313, Moriarity & Allen; 317, M. Swanson; 319, R. Franzinsky; 321, C.W. Montgomery and John T. Spencer; 323, Arthur Uddenberg and A.I. Le Veque; 327, A.M. Oppenheim and E.A. Woodward; 329, The Paris Store (Abe Sackim and Julius Rusky); and 333, Seibert's Drug Store. The board sidewalk in the foreground was on the west side of the street. [Gene Derwinski/Dick Ferris]

In 1902-1903 A.L. Kramer & Company (Abe Kramer) ran a saloon at this location. Archie Lanouette was the proprietor of a restaurant at this address in 1907-1908, and also resided here with his wife Souvrine Lanouette. There was no listing for this address in 1913 or 1925.

At 8 a.m. on the morning of Friday, November 29, 1929, the J.J. Newberry Store, the company's only "chain-store" in the Upper Peninsula, opened in the quarters formerly occupied by the Dillon & Laughlin United Cigar Store (Charles M. Dillon and James A. Laughlin) at 321 South Stephenson Avenue. The resident manager was R. Baker. The store had been "remodeled throughout, with all new fixtures and equipment," according to the article appearing in the November 27, 1929 edition of the Iron Mountain News. Although classified as a 5-25-cent store, prices in the J.J. Newberry Store ranged from five cents to one dollar and covered everything from hairpins to hardware. No ceremony or program of any kind had been arranged for the grand opening, but 50 girl clerks were to be in attendance.

The store eventually expanded to include the adjoining store building at 323 South Stephenson Avenue. In 1935 the J.J. Newberry Company 5-25 cent store, managed by Clarence W. Pickering, was located at 321-323 South Stephenson Avenue. By 1939 Walter R. Worthington managed the J.J. Newberry Company's store, listed at 321 South Stephenson Avenue. The store was again listed at 321-323 South Stephenson Avenue in the 1941-1942 directory with Orville Mynster serving as manager.

In 1961, Martha Post, a women's clothing store, managed by Cordelia Fish, was in business here. In 1963-1964 the manager was Mrs. Doris C. Fowles and in 1966 Mrs. C. Myrtle Beaster was manager.

In 1967 the Wolverine Discount Store, James E. Busher, manager, was located here. In 1969 and 1970 Norman O. Skare was manager, and in 1971 Robert W. Schwarz managed the store, by then called Wolverine Drug.

In 1972 the business, then known as The Drug Store, was managed by Randy Dubey. In 1973 Dennis Vincenzi, pharmacist, was in charge of operations, and in 1974 Jim Swetkovich was manager. By 1976 Gary Marsden was listed as president of The Drug Store.

From 1977 through 1985 Perina's Inc., Mrs. John (Betty) Elmer, president, and Mrs. Perina Pastori, vice-president, operated their women's apparel business here.

History of 323: Arthur Uddenberg, an "Analytical Chemist, Assayer and Druggist," was a "Dealer in pure drugs and medicines" in 1892-1894 at this address and claimed "Prescriptions accurately compounded." A.I. Le Veque, "Jeweler and Watchmaker," a "Dealer in Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Silverware, Optical Goods and Musical Instruments" also operated his shop here in 1892-1894.

The above advertisement appeared in the Bunn & Simmons' Iron Mountain City Directory, 1892-94.

There was no listing at this address in 1902-1903. B. Kramer & Company (Ben Kramer) sold liquor and cigars, and also advertised "billiards" at this location in 1907-1908. In 1913 Joseph De Concini ran The Bank Buffet at this location, also residing here with his wife Ida De Concini.

The Bank Buffet was located at 323 South Stephenson Avenue, pictured here in about 1908, according to information on the back of this photograph. Owner Joseph De Concini stands to the left of the cash register behind the bar, then an unidentified bartender, an unidentified patron, Pete Tramontin and Bill Hosking at the right. [Menominee Range Historical Museum]

In 1925 Aimone & Fornetti (Peter Aimone and James Fornetti) ran a barbershop at this location. In addition, Dillon & Laughlin (Charles M. Dillon and James A. Laughlin) ran a billiard parlor here, and Adelard Page had a boarding house upstairs, also residing there with his wife Camillia Page. The J.J. Newberry Company, a variety store managed by Clarence W. Pickering, conducted business at 321-323 South Stephenson Avenue in 1935. By 1939 Walter R. Worthington managed the J.J. Newberry Company's store, listed at 321 South Stephenson Avenue. The store was again listed at 321-323 South Stephenson Avenue in the 1941-1942 directory with Orville Mynster serving as manager.

From 1961 to 1967 Fugere Bros. Shoes was operated here by Julian M. Fugere and Philip J. Fugere. In 1967 the business was incorporated as Fugere Bros., Inc. with officers Philip J. Fugere, president; James A. Walker, vice-president; and Julian M. Fugere, secretary-treasurer. The business was still in operation at this location in 1985.

By 2010 Salon 323, a beauty salon, operated was in business here with John M. and Deborah A. McKinzie, owners.

History of 325-327-329: A.M. Oppenheim, proprietor of “The Fair,” was a “Dealer in Dry Goods, Clothing, Furniture, Boots, Shoes, Groceries, Provisions and General Merchandise,” and ran his store at 325-327-329 South Stephenson Avenue in 1892-1894. The Fair was located on the former sites of the Montgomery Block and Rundle’s Hardware Store. Rundle’s Hardware Store moved to its new location at 105-107 West Ludington Street (now the site of the Iron Mountain U.S. Post Office) in about 1888. The site of Rundle’s Hardware Store on South Stephenson Avenue was later occupied by The Paris Store, Julius Rusky, proprietor.

History of 325: C.B. Gingras [sic – Gingrass] operated a saloon at 325 South Stephenson Avenue in 1902-1903. Although Joe De Concini’s name appeared in the street index for this address in 1907-1908, he was found in the alphabetical listing as running a livery and selling feed, as well as liquor and cigars, but no place was given, other than his home address at 110 West Ludington Street, where he lived with his wife Ida De Concini.

There was no listing for this address in 1913 or 1925. It is possible that 325 South 1939 city directory, and at 329-331 South Stephenson Avenue in the 1941-1942 city directory. In the 1946 city directory, Ben Seaman was still listed as manager. Between 1959 and 1963 the A. Sackim Company was managed by Clifford M. Fugit. The lower level of the building was listed as vacant in 1964, but Clifford M. Fugit resided upstairs. By 1966 both the upper and lower levels of the Sackim building were listed as vacant.

In 1969 the site was listed as under construction when the Ben Franklin Store was being built. The Ben Franklin Store was listed in the 1970 directory, and the following listings, together with managers, were: 1971 and 1972, Roland J. Bramer, manager; 1973, no manager listed; 1974 through 1978, Vincent J. Wells, manager; 1979-1982, Dwayne Callahan, manager. In 1984 and 1985 the building was listed as vacant.

History of the A. Sackim Company

An article celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of the A. Sackim Company published in The Iron Mountain News on May 5, 1942 stated that in the spring of 1892 Abe Sackim and Julius Rusky established a small general store 26 feet by 75 feet in size in the mining town of Iron Mountain. This store was known as The Paris Store.

Information in the city directories noted Samuel Rusky was running a general store at 121 South Stephenson Avenue in 1892-1894, with Julius Rusky working as a clerk and residing in the store. Abe Sackim's name does not appear in the 1892-1894 city directory. However, Abe Sackim was conducting business in The Paris Store at 331 South Stephenson Avenue by 1902-1903.

Two years after the store started business in the south portion of the building located at 327-331 South Stephenson Avenue, Rusky and Sackim dissolved their partnership, the latter taking over the business which he conducted alone until the company was incorporated in 1910 with brothers Ben Seaman and Sam Seaman becoming members of the firm.

The business prospered under Sackim's management and soon larger quarters were needed for the stock of men's and women's apparel, dry goods, shoes and accessories. An addition for the shoe and ready-to-wear department was added to the original building at that time.

The October 19, 1911 edition of the Iron Mountain Press contained a detailed article regarding the enlarged and remodeled store, announcing the formal opening to be held on Saturday, October 21, 1911, in conjunction with the beginning of the annual fall and winter sale.

The enlarged store had a frontage of 60 feet on Stephenson Avenue and a depth of 150 feet, occupying two floors. The new steel and plate glass front with the large display windows was a very handsome one and "added wonderfully to the general appearance of Iron Mountain's main business street."

There were two main entrances to the store from Stephenson Avenue. Entering the south door, to the right "the greatly enlarged dry goods and ladies' underwear departments" was located, "containing a line of goods that is most complete and fashionable." A large display counter was located in the center and the department containing corsets, notions and yarns was on the left. The bargain department and bed furnishings were located to the rear. The ladies' footwear department was "to the north of the notions department." The office and wrapping department was located behind both the ladies' footwear department and the notions department, almost in the center of the building. The "neck-wear department" occupied a space in the front near the south entrance.

The shoe department for men and boys was located to the right of the north entrance, with men's furnishings and underwear in the center and the clothing and hat and cap departments also on the right. The fixtures in this section of the store were all new, the very latest inventions for the showing of goods to the best advantage, and included modern wall and floor display cases.

The department containing ladies' cloaks and coats, suits, furs and millinery was located in the solid stone annex in the rear.

The entire second floor was devoted to carpets, rugs, curtains, china and glassware and house-furnishings.

By 1914, four years after the incorporation and 22 years after the start of the business, the quarters were again found to be too small, and the store was again expanded. This time the corporation purchased a building immediately to the north of the old store and combined the buildings by cutting arched entrance ways through the walls. An up-to-date men's clothing and furnishings department was then opened in the front half of the new wing, the rear of which was devoted to women's ready-to-wear.

Shortly after this, in 1915, Sackim, due to ill health, found it necessary to move to a warm climate, turning the management of the store over to Ben and Sam Seaman. Ben Seaman and his brother Sam continued the management of the store until the death of the latter, when Ben, the older of the brothers, assumed full control.

The store continued its steady growth under the direction of Ben Seaman, and in 1925 two departments were added, in a newly-built basement. In 1925 the Economy Basement, showing lower priced merchandise, was opened, and in 1926 came the popular cash-and-carry grocery department.

The A. Sackim Company also purchased that half of the property which it formerly had under lease in 1925.

Postmarked C&NWRR Milwaukee R.P.O. (railroad post office), June 28, 1920 [year indistinct] this postcard view shows the east side of the 300 block of South Stephenson Avenue, looking north. Seibert's Drug Store, with awnings lowered, was located on the northeast corner of South Stephenson Avenue and East Hughitt Street. The Abe Sackim Company Store, the largest department store in Iron Mountain at the time, was located north of Seibert's Drug Store. North of the Abe Sackim Company Store was the Montgomery Block, and next door to the north was the building owned by Edwin Freeman. [William J. Cummings]

The firm was reorganized and incorporated April 1, 1909, two new members, Ben Seaman and Sam Seaman, being taken in. Mr. Sam Seaman died several years ago, but his brother, Ben, today holds the position of secretary and treasurer of the firm, Mr. Sackim, the original organizer, still being president.

From the time it was started the store has enjoyed a steadily expanding business. The original quarters consisted of one room 25x60 feet and in 1898 the first addition was built. This addition lengthened the store 60 feet, giving it a total of 120 feet. In 1903 a complete basement was constructed. In 1910 the building to the north, or the section now occupied by the men's clothing department, was acquired.

The store now consists of two floors and sales basement, all 60x120 feet.

In early May, 1942, the A. Sackim Company celebrated its 50th Anniversary.

At that time the store had "a staff of 35 carefully trained salesmen and saleswomen, many of whom, entering the employ of the company while still in their teens, had 'grown up' with the store." The department heads were Dan Goodman, men's clothing; Arthur Chapman, Sr., women's and children's shoes; Miss Irene Johnson, women's ready-to-wear; Ben Rusky, the Economy Basement; and Charles Luber, the cash-and-carry grocery department.

In observance of 50 years of business in a city where the store had become an institution, the A. Sackim Company invited its customers and friends to call. There were sales in all departments, cash awards in the amount of $500, flowers for the

The store, originally the Sackim and Rusky store, was founded in 1892. The business was incorporated in 1908 as the A. Sackim Company and with the late Mr. Abe Sackim as president.

Ben Seaman Manager

When the latter moved with his family from the city, the late Ben Seaman was made general manager in 1920 and served until the death, in Chicago, of Mr. Sackim. Mr. Seaman then was made president.

On the death of Mr. Seaman, Mr. Fugit was made general manager and Lawrence Joselit, Jr., of Chicago, grandson of the founder of the store, was advanced to the presidency.

A large, three-layer birthday cake tonight will be placed in one of the windows of the store, signaling the opening of the May-month birthday observance. The lower layer of the cake consists of a large base; the second layer a replica of the store as it is today, and the top layer, a miniature of the smaller store which was opened by Mr. Sackim.

Many Changes

Visitors to the store will note the many changes made during the recent months, including the installation of a modern, new cash register system with a complete floor audit; more sales space on the first floor, made possible by the moving of the offices

"In undertaking this project, we expressed complete confidence in the economic stability of Iron Mountain. This city will come all the way back and again be the hub of activity in this area," Mr. Fugit said today in commenting on the modernization program in the store.

The store has also increased its personnel and has designated key employes [sic – employees] as buyers. "By selecting employes [sic – employees] familiar with the various departments, we are assured of buyers who know what the public wants and who are able to place orders in the market that will give us the best in merchandise at the most reasonable prices," Fugit added.

Designated Buyers

Designated as buyers are Mose Pasten, men's clothing; Don Cooper, men's furnishings; Jack Croci, men's shoes; Miss Isabelle King, accessories and dry goods; Miss Irene Johnson, women's ready-to-wear; Dan Poisson, women's shoes, and Abe Block, the basement store.

"It is reassuring to note that during the 60 years the A. Sackim company has been doing business, only three managers have served the store," Fugit said.

There now are 27 employes [sic – employees] of the store, with an average of 10 years' employment. The oldest employe [sic – employee] has been on the payroll for 35 years.
