

Peter White Public Library presents a Great Michigan Read Event

The Great Michigan Read is presented by the Michigan Humanities Council with support from Meijer and the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Meet Kevin Boyle, author of

Arc of Justice: A Saga of Race, Civil Rights, and Murder in the Jazz Age

The story of African American physician Ossian Sweet and the chain of events that occurred after he purchased a home for his family in an all-white Detroit neighborhood in 1925. By telling this story, Boyle illuminates other historical issues, including the building blocks of the civil rights movement, the Great Migration of African Americans to the north, the social and political climate of the 1920s, and the boomtown years of Detroit.

Reception with book sale & signing follows the presentation.
