

The City of Marquette Arts and Culture Center presents

TRANSLATING SPACE

Artwork from Fern Place Art Space artists

Yvonne LeMire, Emily Lanctot and Linda King Ferguson

Linda King Ferguson is exhibiting oil paintings and drawings from her 'What Birds Fly Through' series. In this series she explores mark making, delineation of negative spaces, textures, and patterns. She accomplishes this through a process of constructing, deconstructing, and re-constructing.

Emily Lanctot is showing a series of photographs that investigate the weight of mundane objects and how these objects enhance and contrive collective memory.

Yvonne LeMire, sculptor, jeweler and certified welder conceives and executes her work compositionally being attentive to the relationship of shape, line, texture and color.

November 18 -
December 22, 2009

Please join us
for a reception on Thursday, December 3rd
from 6:00 - 8:00 p.m.

MACC Gallery in the Lower Level of the Peter White Public Library
217 N. Front St.
(906) 228-0472, arts@mqtcty.org
visit www.mqtcty.org

Above right: sculpture by Yvonne LeMire,
above left: photographs by Emily Lanctot;
painting at right by Linda King Ferguson

