COLLECTION

The Peter White Public Library

(PWPL) is a Cooperating Collection of the Foundation Center (<http://foundationcenter.org>). As a member of this nationwide network of libraries, community foundations, and other nonprofit agencies, the PWPL provides visitors with free public access to grantmaker directories, books on fundraising and nonprofit management, plus the Foundation Center's electronic databases, The Foundation Directory Online and Foundation Grants to Individuals Online.

PWPL PARTNERS

- ◆ Great Lakes Center for Youth Development:
<http://glcyd.org>
The Great Lakes Center for Youth Development (GLCYD) is a nonprofit organization dedicated to improving the youth environment by strengthening the organizations that serve youth. We specialize in working with rural communities where resources are scarce and people are passionate about youth development.
- ◆ Superiorland Library Cooperative:
<http://uproc.lib.mi.us>
The Superiorland Library Cooperative (SLC) serves 26 public libraries in the central and western Upper Peninsula. The Cooperative's mission develops and sustains innovative programs that are cost effective because all types of libraries collaborate in shared, economy-of-scale activities.
