September 3: The Art of Healing Heartbeats
by Jan-Philipp Sendker

Julia, an American lawyer, travels to Kalaw, Burma in search of her father Tin Win who disappeared without a trace. Her only clue is a loveletter he wrote in 1955 to a Burmese woman, Mi Mi.

October 1: A Gentleman in Moscow by Amor Towles

In 1922, the Bolshevik tribunal sentences Count Alexander Rostov to house arrest for being an "unrepentant aristocrat." Forced to live in an attic room in the grand hotel Metropol, across from the Kremlin, Alexander discovers that his new circumstances give him the opportunity for emotional growth and purpose.

November 5: Gifts of the Crow: How Perception, Emotion and Thought Allow Smart Birds to Behave Like Humans by John Marzluff

Scientist John Marzluff examines the human-like behavior that crows exhibit from using tools to dreaming to giving gifts and seeking revenge.
